HUNGARY IS IN GREAT TURMOIL

Border Has Been Closed in an Effort to Keep Back Rumanians.

BERLIN, Wednesday, April 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—Hungary has heretofore closed all her borders in an effort to control the Rumanian invasion and prevent unfavorable news from escaping from the country. Reports from Budapest, therefore, are contradictory, but all indicate the situation is grave.

The days of the soviet government are perhaps numbered. The entente powers are said to have 60,000 colonial troops in Neusatz, which are advancing as a Rumanian reserve. The Czechs are believed to be preparing to attack. The people of Transylvania have revolted and are advancing with the Rumanians because of the agrarian measures imposed by the soviet regime.

A panic is said to reign in Budapest, where the communist authorities are reported to be ruthlessly arresting scores of the bourgeoisie. Thousands of the citizens are fleeing, according to reports.

The Budapest police have begun a counter-revolutionary movement, but it is said that all involved have been arrested. Government troops are leaving in mind the experience of their comrades who capitulated to the Rumanians.

Villa Fights Way Into Parral and Loots the Town

JAUREZ, Mexico, April 24.—Francisco Villa fought his way into Parral, the famous mining camp 125 miles southeast of Chihuahua City, Sunday morning after a battle which started at daybreak Saturday and ended with Villa's entry at the head of his fifteen hundred troops Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The town was then looted.

Three American mining men arrived here tonight from Parral with the first information of the battle. When they left Parral Tuesday morning Villa held the town but later reports stated that the government troops from Chihuahua City, which left there Sunday on four troop trains, had attacked and a battle was reported to have been in progress around Parral today. This information cannot be confirmed as wire communication has been interrupted.

Business Man's Stomach Smaller

"My much distended stomach is greatly reduced. Doctors wanted to operate and tap my stomach, but I happened to see a newspaper ad of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and after taking 3 doses I have had no more distress or bloating and am eating things I have not dared to eat for 6 years. I am confident your medicine will cure me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. VICTORY LOAN

Yesterday was a fairly good day for the Victory loan, 536 subscriptions totaling $177,300 being received through the banks, making the sum now pledged $241,300. This includes $64,000 raised by the railroads.

Bank	Subscriptions	Amount
First National	106	$15,900
Utah National	99	20,400
Commercial National	53	21,550
Pinkney National	88	21,450
Ogden State	141	54,950

Ogden Savings	62	9,650

WASHINGTON April 24.—In a statement given out at the direction of Mr. Tumulty said:

"In view of the fact that certain newspapers of wide circulation throughout the country have intimated that the president had entered into a secret alliance or treaty with some of the great powers, I conveyed this information to the president and am today in receipt of a cablegram from him giving positive and unqualified denial to this story."

Press dispatches from Paris several days ago said it was understood that the president was considering an understanding with France providing for the assistance of the United States in event of any future aggression on the part of Germany.

GEORGE KENLEY LIDDELL, FIRST OGDEN BOY TO BE KILLED, WAS WITH THE CANADIANS

Concerning the part George Kenley Liddell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Liddell, 318 Franklin avenue, Ogden, played in the great war, giving his life to the cause of humanity after enlisting in the Canadian forces when he believed the United States was failing to failure, is told in the following communication to the Standard and the letter written by his army chum to his sister, which follows the communication.

The communication and letter follow:
Editor Standard: In your paper the other day you mentioned the planting of memorial trees in honor of the soldiers and also that the trees were named for them. One was planted and named "Crandall Liddell." I suppose this was meant for George Kenley Liddell. Special mention was made of his being the first Ogden boy to give up his life in the war. It was also stated that George had joined the Canadian forces after being rejected by the American army on account of his size. Your information was mistaken as to facts. George did not try to enlist with the American army, so was not rejected. He stood 5 feet 7 inches in his socks, weighed 153 pounds, and I am sure, would not have been refused enlistment, as he was perfectly healthy.

"George left the United States in March, 1916, going to Canada. While in Winnipeg he enlisted in the 180th battalion because he thought the United States was not going to enter the war. He was sent from Halifax to England in May, 1917, and was stationed with the 18th Canadian reserves at Shorncliffe, England, being drafted for service in France with the 8th Canadian battalion.

"In June, 1917, George tried to get transferred into the United States army, after the country had entered the war. But he was told that unless his services were of special value to the United States he could not be transferred. On September 1st, 1917, he landed in France and was killed in action in Belgium, presumably at Paschendaele, November 10th, 1917.

"We are profoundly grateful to the committee who honored our son, and we extend our sincere thanks to the members of the committee who performed the ceremony.

Thanking you in advance for making this correction, I beg to remain,
Very sincerely yours,
MRS. E. A. LIDDELL.

P. S.—George was taught wrestling and boxing by his father and Jack Harberson.

Letter From A Chum

"Edmonton Military Hospital, Edmonton, N. England, Dec. 27, 1917.

"Miss Nellie Liddell, Ogden Utah.

"P. S. A. My Dear Miss Liddell:

"Please pardon me, a stranger, for writing to you, but I want to convey my sympathy to you and your folks over the death of George. He was a fine young man and a splendid soldier and will be greatly missed in his company. He was a general favorite among all of the boys, and he was just like a brother to me. In fact, they used to call us brothers, because where one of us was found the other was sure to be not far away.

"George was killed in action on the morning of Nov. 9, by a shell, and death was instantaneous. He never knew what struck him. He was in platoon 14, machine gun section, and this one shell killed all the section except one man.

"George and I soldiered together in Canada, England, France and Belgium and we were always pals. We were in the same company, but different platoons, George being platoon 14, while I was assigned to platoon 12. Both of us were Lewis machine gunners.

"Probably you have a girl friend to whom you tell all your troubles, or in fact, who is a real pal. That is how George was to me—a real pal in every sense of the word.

"I had the misfortune to be wounded on the 10th of November, but I can say that I got revenge out of Fritz before I got hit. I never saw George after he got hit, but one of our lieutenants came down the trench and told us about 14-M. G. section getting wiped out. He said they were all killed instantly. So he never suffered then died, as so often happens over there.

"George was quite an athlete. He won a wrist watch in a swimming race held at the Cornish baths at Winnipeg, Manitoba, as first prize before we came overseas. While we were in the 18th Canadian Reserve battalion at Shorncliffe, Kent, England, before going to France, he won first prize twice in a two hundred yard dash, the prize being a week-end pass to London. He was a number one good wrestler and fair with the boxing gloves. We had a lively time together in London on our short leave. We were in London six days and certainly had a fine time.

"I used to envy George his good humor. No matter how hard the march or drill he could always laugh. He certainly was glad when he received the letters from you and your mother. He brought them both to me to read as soon as he got them. He received your letter just before going up the line. I don't know whether or not he had a chance to answer it.

"You have lost a brother, and your parents a son, of whom any one could have been proud—and I certainly lost the best pal I ever had. Well, I must bring this to a close, and if I get out of this war all O. K. I will try to make a trip up and tell your folks what I can about him.

"Trusting this letter finds all of you well, I beg to remain,
(Signed) Pvt. Vance Needham,

BILLY SUNDAY, IN SCORCHING LANGUAGE, GIVES HIS VIEW OF GERMANY AND THE GERMANS

"Uncle Sam is not going to stick a gun under your nose and demand your cash; all he asks is that you loan him some of your money and he will pay you good interest. We have bought German militarism, and we need this Victory loan money to pay the funeral expenses." was the summing up of a most remarkable speech delivered yesterday afternoon in the Alhambra theatre by Billy Sunday.

The noted evangelist mixed some gospel with his speaking for dollars to complete the job of "whipping the tar out of the stinking, rotten Heines, the biggest bunch of cut-throats, despoilers of women and killers of babies that ever came down the pike."

"You can't fool God," said Sunday, as he told his audience how the reckoning is to be made when those who held back their dollars now are weighed in the balances and found wanting.

Sunday arrived in Ogden yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the east. He was met at the station by Mayor T. S. Brown, Charles Barton, chairman of the Victory loan committee; Warren L. Wattis, president of the Weber club; Mrs. H. H. Spencer, representing the women of the city to greet Mrs. Sunday, and Mrs. Edward Bichsel of the Federated clubs. Sunday stated that he would like to go to his hotel and rest until time to speak. Mrs. Sunday was taken for a ride through Ogden canyon by the ladies of the reception committee, returning in time for the meeting.

At the end of the speech, the audience showed it had been touched by the forceful logic of the remarkable appeal. No doubt his sincere and earnest appeal for Americans to stand by the Stars and Stripes in peace as well as in war will result in a large increase of individual intentions to buy at least one bond.

Introduced by Mayor Brown, and at once he began to warm up to his subject. When Sunday smiles he wins favor instantly. When he gets under full steam he scores a knockout with the audience.

OTHERS are IMITATIONS

Using all the gestures and poses ever invented for use in a pulp or on the baseball diamond, with a few that might have been borrowed from a crap game, and with classic slang, so typically American, Sunday drove a thunderbolt lay sermon into the audience as he appealed to Ogden citizens to hold up the hands of Uncle Sam while he clamps the heavy iron band around the devil's neck and makes real peace a "clinch."

Stating that he is a Republican, and a hard boiled one at that, Sunday paid an eloquent tribute to President Wilson. He pictured the president as having "faced the music" and "faced the great job." "Thank God I'm big enough to give him credit, Republican though I am," said Sunday. At each mention of the president and his task the audience gave enthusiastic applause.

What He Thinks of Germans.

"They'd have to print asbestos newspapers," he said, "if they wanted to publish what I really think about the Germans. I don't think they're responsible for what the world has endured. The hell the Kaiser created on this earth made the real thing look like a sideshow. Germany lost out when she turned from Christ to Krupp, from the Cross of Calvary to the cross of iron. If Germany had won there would be nothing worth living for. Civilization is a ship, and we of this country have the obligation of the captain to save the ship or go down with it. We'll save it. We'll go over the top with this Victory loan as the boys went over the top to save freedom."

"President Wilson," he said, "has faced more great and difficult problems than ever faced a president, save, perhaps, Washington and Lincoln, and he solved them better." This was greeted with prolonged applause, that was mixed with laughter and Sunday added that he was a Democrat.

Diverging for a moment from the loan and from the sins of the Kaiser and his "gang," Sunday went after Bolshevism. "If I had the power," he said, "I wouldn't allow any back-biting, etc., radical go up and down the country preaching Bolshevism. I'd pack the jails so full of them that their feet would stick out of the windows. I'd say to them, 'If you don't like this country, if you don't come here to be good citizens, get back to where you came from.' At which the audience shouted applause.

To Enslave the World.

"Uncle Sam had a pretty big job to buck the Germans," said Sunday, "but he never faltered. The old boy just rolled up his sleeves and dug in. Germany set about to enslave the world and the allies with Uncle Sam's assistance, set it free. We would have been a nation of battleships, submarines with those Heines parading down our streets, if Germany had won. 'The pirate of the air, the despoiler of the sea and the destroyer of the

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

"BEST BY TEST"

Its superior quality meets every baking need. Gives muffins, biscuits and everything you use baking powder with a goodness you probably never knew existed.

Moderate in cost—certain in results—most economical baking powder to use when you want to practice real economy. Stop taking chances of waste and failures. Use a high grade baking powder at a moderate price.

Used in the U. S. Army and Navy. Made in world's largest, finest, most sanitary baking powder factory. What better recommendation could you ask for its reliability?

CALUMET MUFFINS

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 2 level tablespoonsful Sugar | 2 1/2 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder |
| 3 level tablespoons shortening | 2 1/2 level cups flour |
| 1 level teaspoon salt | 1 1/2 cup milk or water |
| | Lemon and mace flavor |

How to Make Them—Cream together 1/2 cup flour with shortening until light. Beat egg with sugar until firm and add to the creamed flour and shortening, then add the milk. Last mix in balance of flour and baking powder well sifted together. Bake in greased muffin pans.

You will find this a valuable addition to your collection of recipes—cut it out and paste it in your reference book for future use.

The Law Says 16-oz. to a Pound

When you buy a pound of Calumet you get a full pound—16-oz. Some high priced baking powders are now being put on the market in 12-oz. cans instead of a pound. Be sure you are getting a pound when you want it. No short weights with Calumet.

earth went up against a tough proposition when he antagonized your Uncle Samuel. Look what our boys did. They were recruited from the schools and colleges; they came from the farms and some of them threw off the uniform of the bellhop to don the O. D. of Uncle Sam. Over half of them had never cocked an eye down the barrel of a gun and yet Chateau-Thierry, in the Argonne, and at the Meuse they licked the tar out of Kaiser Bill's crack Prussian guards—mere boys against the most perfectly organized military system in the world.

"The Germans struck like a rattlesnake at the American doughboys and everybody else who opposed them, but they ran like hell when they found out when those self same doughboys started to pound them on the tail.

What Uncle Sam Wants.
"Uncle Sam licked the Germans; he delivered the punch that put the Germans to the ropes, hanging over, gasping for breath. The soldiers never fought with their flag at half mast. Are you going to fight as they did? Fling the flag to the breeze of a free nation from the top of the highest pinnacle, drag out your groans and bury them and loan your dough to Uncle Sam.

"German militarism is dead; American liberty lives, but the debt is still to be paid. Here is your opportunity. We owe something around ten billion dollars; what it costs us to handle the biggest job ever attempted by any nation. Remember, you are not going to have a gun stuck into your face
